If Moses was the son of Pharaoh's daughter, then he was the daughter of Pharaoh's son. Do you see it?

He who strikes a woman, a child or a dumb creature, is unmerciful, and shall not obtain mercy. The tongue often gives the hardest blows.

When she told him he was a flat, Jones said it was all her fault, because she wouldn't have him a round. Jones thinks he got square on her then.

A subscriber writes to an editor in the West: "If don't want your paper any longer." To which the editor replies: "I wouldn't make it any longer if you did. Its length suits me very well."

The most important steel mine in the country is at Roxbury, Conn. The ore was thrown as rubbish until within a few years, when the proprietor found a Prussian engineer who had worked mines of the same sort in Prussia. The product is of great value and of extensive use among iron manufacturers.

An old Highlander, rather fond of his toddy, was ordered by his physician, during a temporary illness, not to exceed one ounce of spirits daily. The old gentleman was dubious about the amount, and asked his son, a school boy, how much an ounce was. "Sixteen drachms," was the reply. "Sixteen drachms! an excellent doctor!" replied the Highlander; "true and true, but Donald Mc Tavish and big John to come down the night."

"Have you writing-paper boxes with letters on it?" I informed her I had a fine assortment of the different styles of initial stationery. "How much do you ask for a box of it?" "All prices, from twenty cents to two dollars per box," I then inquired what initial she wanted. After a moment's pause and some consultation with a friend, she answered she would take "G," and turning to her friend, she said she took that letter "because she wrote to George twice as often as any one else."—Publisher's Weekly.

The Chinese servants of California are helping each other in a secret society way by posting up a record in the kitchen or out house, in their tea chest and fire-cracker symbols, of the vices and eccentricities of employers. A gentleman who had trouble with his servants recently engaged a new cook. He had no idea of the record gone into the kitchen then, upon reading one of those insignificant bits of paper, he turned and fled from the house. On being followed by the master, who asked what was the matter, he said: "Me no wantee here stop—cookman here talk bad no good, long tongue—pay no money—workee all day—me go."

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

FRIDAY, OCT. 1, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

There has been a reunion of the army of the Tennessee, and on the occasion President Grant made the longest speech of his life. The Ministerial journals deny that Senator Canovas de Castillo ever, during his Premiership, promised to re-establish the Concordate between Spain and the Vatican.

The Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of this city opens this morning with an abundance of funds. The Bank of Temple & Workman will not resume business for several days.

The trouble between the Fall River mill owners and operatives is about over, and is believed the mills will be running with full force on Monday.

The Emperor William of Prussia has gone to Baden to celebrate the birthday of the Empress Augusta.

The Treasurer of Lyon county, Iowa, is a defaulter to a large amount. Gold closed in New York yesterday at 117 1/2.

Yesterday morning an explosion occurred in the Anchor colliery, Pennsylvania, killing James Adams, Arthur D. Hart and seriously injuring Michael Butler and Isaac Wilkins.

Besides the above, Pierre Fournier and M. James were slightly injured, burned by gas.

President Grant and General Sherman were at Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue decides that railroads are liable to 5 per cent. tax instead of 2 1/2 per cent. on dividend earnings prior to August 1st, 1875.

A new steamer line between Boston, New York and South America will be inaugurated at an early date.

The Kansas station Smuggler won an easy race in Boston yesterday.

Railroad Freights.

When the ablest men in the land understand but little about railroads, it is not surprising that the masses should entertain erroneous opinions on the subject. The science of rail transportation is but in its infancy, and being ignorant of the laws and principles which govern it the law makers can enact no restrictions that will ensure to the benefit of the entire community. Empty headed demagogues may rail against the extortions of railroad companies, and representatives from "back wood" counties assume to interfere in a matter of which they are wholly ignorant, but the ablest thinkers of the day who have considered the railroad question testify that the interests of the railroad and the people are so identical that it is against all reason to expect that any intelligent directory would for any length of time attempt to oppress the people, but that even if such a case should happen the abuse would soon correct itself. In other words among the best informed it is a recognized principle that legislative interference with railroads is likely to prove detrimental to both the shipper and the carrier. A railroad once constructed becomes a part of the country through which it passes. It grows with the country, increases its wealth as the people along its route prosper, and decays with the poverty of its patrons. This is the case whether the line is a monopoly or whether it has numerous competitors. In the latter case very low rates may prevail for a time, but all the routes must ultimately return to a paying basis. In fact, it is not to the interest of any people to have the railroad companies bankrupted by the cheap freights and fares. Residents along a railroad know nothing of the science of transportation, and make out apparently satisfactory charges of extortion and oppression. Jones who lives ten miles from a market thinks his goods should be transported for exactly one tenth as much as those of Smith who resides ninety miles further, forgetting that the cost of loading and unloading are the same in both cases, and is perhaps the largest element in the cost of moving the freight. If the charge for loading and discharging lumber for example, be one dollar per thousand and the freight six cents per mile, in the foregoing case JONES pays a total of $2.60 or 26 cents per mile and SMITH $8.00 or 8 cents per mile, yet the company has acted impartially. It may be also that SMITH is the only shipper to his station at the time while ten of JONES neighbors get goods the same day. The cost of stopping a freight train and dropping a box car would be the same in both cases. In the matter of discrimination against particular kinds of freight investigation generally proves that the railroad managers are acting on sound principles. Of course every merchant and every farmer can see special reasons why his particular line of goods or produce should have the benefit of minimum rates. The selfishness of human nature dictates the majority of the charges of this species of discrimination. These remarks were elicited by a perusal of an interview between Governor STANFORD and a reporter of the San Francisco Chronicle. The interviewer went fully charged with complaints against the Central Pacific railroad, but President STANFORD, at least as it appears to our minds, satisfactorily refuted all the charges brought forward. The advance of transcontinental freights since the consolidation of the railroad and the Panama steamship line was natural enough since before that time the rates were below a paying figure; but at present the charges from New York to San Francisco are below what they formerly were between Chicago and the Pacific. The competition of the sailing vessels around Cape Horn checks any extortion on the part of the railroad, even if it were desired.

The roads from the Atlantic seaboard to Omaha charge less for overland freight than for any other, and the people of the Pacific slope get the benefit of this, though the goods do not come through as quickly as is desirable. On the Union and Central Pacific, freight was transported more rapidly than on any roads in the country. There could be no restriction from present figures, Mr. STANFORD said, because the rate was now the cheapest in the world considering the distance and the heavy grading, and the passenger rate was equally reasonable. Regarding the Southern Pacific, the President said work would be pushed as rapidly as possible. Los Angeles would be reached July 4th, and the Colorado river some time next year. The general tendency on this line is towards a reduction of freights, the rapid settlement of the country rendering it politic and remunerative.

Another Chinese War.

Prince LI HUNG CHANG who now has absolute control over the Chinese government is a sanguinary soldier, and heartily dispenses the foreigners resident in the Orient. It is undoubtedly his policy to foment discord between the natives and the Europeans, and at an early day expect the white race from Chinese territory. The mandarins of course are enlisted with the Prince, and the late attack upon both the American and British consulates by the mob prove that the people have received intimation of the new policy, and are eager to inaugurate it at once. The British Government does not tolerate an outrage upon its citizens in any quarter of the globe, and will at any time spend millions of money to avenge an insult to its accredited representatives. That England is unwilling to pass over the recent attack upon her consulate is evident by the active movements now going on. Her fleet in Chinese waters is being reinforced, and her attitude is growing more hostile. It is not improbable that LI HUNG CHANG has his countrymen prepared for a great struggle. They are provided with the most approved implements of modern warfare and well instructed in their use; and if they could be brought up to the necessary condition of pluck by intense hatred of the "foreign barbarian," with their vast numbers and great resources, the contest will be more evenly balanced than formerly. The Chinese Empire though not able to actually repel an English invasion, can beyond question make a stronger resistance than during the last Anglo-Chinese struggle.

On, Stanley, On!

When STANLEY at the direction of JAMES GORDON BENNETT plunged into the African forest to search for Dr. LIVINGSTON the world applauded his heroism, and the journalists congratulated themselves that the "Space consumer" the "Theory builder"—would have one less subject to dilate upon. LIVINGSTON was found, lost, and found again, and Mr. STANLEY regretting the service he had done the profession resolved to lose himself. In November 1874 he departed from Zanzibar for the interior of Africa. Since that time he has been exploring the country around the great lakes that are the sources of the Nile. Now comes to the outer world two letters from Mr. STANLEY, giving an account of his explorations. These are dated at some village that has a most frightful name—a name that suggests horror and destruction—a name that requires all the vowels and about half the consonants in our alphabet to spell. After passing through an African village with such a name it will not be long before the world will begin to trouble itself seriously about the fate of the journalist and explorer.

Farmer's and Merchant's Bank.

Persons who dropped into the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank yesterday afternoon could not well avoid seeing a rather pretty sight. The tables were covered with trays filled with twenty dollar pieces, piles of gold notes were lying about, on the floor were a score or more of boxes filled with silver, and a peep into the vault disclosed a number of large bags puffed out with coin. The bank resumes business this morning with more funds than it will need should demands be made upon it for much more money than is likely to be called for in the next six months. We may state in this connection that the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank has paid all checks and demands of whatever amount presented at its counter within the past two weeks.

PACIFIC COAST.

For Los Angeles. CAIENTE, Sept. 30.—The following passengers for Los Angeles left on the Telegraph Stage Line to-day: A. Brown, J. Miller, T. J. Davis and L. J. Ledyard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29th.—The trial of L. Berry, indicted for the murder of his father, Lewis Berry, on Oct. 31st, 1874, was begun in the 4th District Court yesterday. It appears that the defendant on that day, had some difficulty with his father, and between nine and ten o'clock the old man went to bed. Isaac went into his father's room and without a word of warning he crushed in his skull with a hatchet, and ripped open his throat with a long-bladed knife or dirk. Isaac was captured by the police, and acknowledged his guilt without hesitation. He said that for many months his friends had been urging him, by making signs, to kill his father, and he supposed his father had also been urged to kill him. The deceased came to California in 1853 and followed the business of white-washing. The defence is a plea of insanity. The will of Joseph R. Blumenthal was filed for probate yesterday. The testator bequeaths all his property to his wife, Susanah, and appoints her sole executrix without bonds. The value of the estate is about $500,000.

About 2 o'clock this morning, W. Muir, a German sailor, was stabbed in the back during a quarrel between him and Frederick Dietrich, in the Raelne House. Dietrich was arrested, and both he and Muir were locked up. Fire at Carson.—Death of a Pioneer. CARSON CITY, Nev. Sept. 29.—About half past 4 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was given and it was discovered that Moore & Co's fine dancing hall was in flames. The building being very dry and water scarce the fire soon spread to the adjoining buildings, destroying the residences of Jno. Q. A. Moore and Geo. Tukey, and damaging that of Dr. L. A. Herick. The dancing hall was valued at $60,000. Insured for $1,500. It was regarded as the finest dancing hall in the State. There seems to be no doubt that it was the work of an incendiary and a sharp lookout is being kept by the citizens.

EASTERN NEWS.

Election of Yale Officers. NEW HAVEN, Sept. 30.—At the annual meeting of Yale University, held last evening, the following officers were elected: E. P. Howe, President; Julian Kennedy, Vice-President; W. M. Walker, Secretary. Capt. Cook was re-elected Treasurer amid great enthusiasm. He has held the position for three successive years.

A Cross Bivorce Suit. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Sept. 30.—Mrs. Hattie Russell, wife of Jas. H. Russell, a prominent man, applied for a divorce on the plea of cruelty, and asks for $20,000 alimony. He crosses her petition and sues Jas. Simms and wife, parents for Mrs. Russell, for $180,000 damages, for alienating his wife's affections and breaking up his home.

Unsuccessful Indian Hunt. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 30.—A special says that Col. Wein, who followed in the trail of the Indians who killed Wright on Thursday last has returned without coming up with the red skins. Col. Yates's command has not been heard from since Sunday evening.

The Massachusetts Convention. NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Herald commenting on the Worcester Convention, considers that the selection of Wilson as Chairman was in consequence of his coldness towards President Grant. The platform also casts reflection on both, while it relates to civil service reform and third term. It is sound and satisfactory on the currency question. It considers, however, the nomination of Rice for Governor is certainly not in pursuance of the new departure advocated by Hour and Wilson.

Suspension of a Bank. NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Third Avenue Savings Bank has suspended. The Trustees have made application for the appointment of a receiver. The standing of the Bank at present is unknown. The cause of the suspension is the failure of the bank to pay its deposits. The bank was founded in 1854, and had a capital of $1,000,000. It had a surplus of $200,000.

Tilton again lecturing. NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A large crowd assembled at Cooper's Institute last evening on the occasion of the first appearance in this city of Thos. Tilton since the great scandal trial. His subject was "The Problem of Life," and it was ably handled, the brilliant passages eliciting repeated applause. A large number of ladies were in the audience. He lectures tomorrow evening at the Brooklyn Academy of Music on "The Human Mind."

FOREIGN.

Fearful Shipwreck Accident. SORREL, Canada, Sept. 29th.—About 7 o'clock last evening, a train coming from Yameska, ran over an obstruction, supposed to have been maliciously put across the track. Six platform cars, on which there were about 70 laborers, were in front with the engine, and they were being at a fair speed. Two or three of the platform cars were upset by the shock and the men on board fearfully crushed and mangled. Eleven were killed and twenty-five wounded. The laborers belonged to Lower Canada.

EASTERN NEWS.

Grant and Sherman.

DES MOINES, Sept. 30th.—The day has been rather gloomy for the reunion exercises, but the city has been crowded with visitors. In the afternoon President Grant and Gen. Sherman held a reception at the State Arsenal, and at least six thousand people passed through and shook hands with them. This evening a grand banquet was given by the citizens to the distinguished visitors at the Savary House. President Grant and party will leave in the morning for Cheyenne. Gen. Belknap and party go to Chicago to-morrow.

Railroad Tax.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 30. The Commissioner on Internal Revenue has agreed that under the act of July 14th, 1870, railway companies are liable to 5 per cent. tax instead of 2 1/2 per cent., on the amount of all dividends, earnings, income or gain, which accrued prior to Aug. 1st, 1870; also on all undivided profits earned by the companies prior to that date and added to any surplus, contingent, or other fund. The question came before the bureau on an application of the Illinois Central railroad to abate the tax assessed on the rate of five per cent., claiming that 2 1/2 per cent. was the gal rate under section 15 of act of July, 1870.

An Easy Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 30th.—The match race between the stallions Smuggler and Thomas Jefferson at Beacon Park to-day proved a disappointment to the people who were present on the track. Jefferson was in number one condition when he came up for the start. Smuggler won the first two heats, leading from the start to the finish in each heat—time 2:25 1/2, 2:28. When Jefferson came up for the third heat he was so lame his owner requested the privilege of drawing him, which was granted, and Smuggler jorged over the track at time 2:40. Great dissatisfaction was expressed at the starting of Jefferson, and his backers in the pool lost heavily, as he brought $20 to $40 for Smuggler before the start. The date and place for the mile and repeat match race between the same stallions has been fixed, Hartford, Conn., October 14th, having been decided upon.

South American Steamer Line.

Boston, Sept. 30th.—The new enterprise of connecting Boston and New York and the West coast of South America by a line of steamers will soon be carried into practical operation. Messrs. Hemingway and Brown of this city contracted some months since for the building of an auxiliary iron screw steamship in England, to be employed in this line, and the vessel was successfully launched on the 16th of September and named the City of Valparaiso. She is full model, ship rigged, with shifting screw, and is to be fitted with engines of one thousand horse power.

The steamer Los Angeles sails from Santa Monica, this morning, taking the following passengers for San Francisco and way ports: G. Ray and wife, D. Riley and wife, G. W. Currier and wife, H. L. Garfield and wife, J. Dana, R. C. Pearson.

The stallion Smuggler, the winner in the Boston race yesterday, two years ago was drawing a plow in Johnson county, Kansas. He was bought by Col. W. S. Tough, U. S. Marshal of Kansas, and M. H. Insley, a banker of Leavenworth, Kansas, for $6,000 and taken to Boston and sold for $30,000. He has made good time and can do better than 2:20.

We have been favored with an inspection of the regalia presented to Past Sachem Caystille. It is of scarlet silk velvet, with the usual gold trimmings. The jewels are of solid gold, and the gold used in the manufacture of the regalia cost $75. It was manufactured by Morris H. Gorham, No. 608 Arch street, Philadelphia, and is the most elegant regalia ever brought to this section.

Southern California is famous for its productiveness, being literally a land overflowing with milk and honey. Only a short time ago we noticed a large amount of honey being taken out of a deserted vault in our cemetery. One of our people had procured a box of honey from the vault, and now Mr. Mesmer, owner of the U. S. Hotel, is to secure a honey crop in the roof of the hotel. The yield is estimated at 1000 pounds and the crop will be secured to-day. Who will doubt the productiveness of property in Los Angeles after this occurrence?

Remington Sewing Machine.

Perhaps they may wish a harder name for them when their merits are fully known to the people of Southern California. Though hardly three months since its introduction in Los Angeles, it has already become a household name. The Remington Sewing Machine is in construction it stands unrivalled. In the Eastern States it has already taken the front rank in sewing machines, and is fast taking the place of the older and harder running machines. In the manufacture of their family machines they have increased from 5000 to 8000 in the past four months, and to-day with their large facilities for turning out 250 machines per day, the Remington folks are 2000 behind in filling orders and are obliged to enlarge their works.

In the manufacture of their rifles, revolvers, agricultural implements, type writers, etc., their name has become a synonym of perfection in work and material, and everyone knows when it bears the stamp of Remington it is good and up to not behind the times. Do the Remington folks use the merits of their machines upon the sales of former years, the Remington base their sales upon the merits of their machine as it stands to-day, and are ready to try it against any machine in the market.

Of the new minister of the M. E. church of this city the California Christian Advocate has the following complimentary notice.

Rev. G. Hickey, being introduced, delivered a fine address on the harmony of "Science and Religion." The speaker argued that there was not the least conflict between true science and the religion taught in the Bible. The seeming antagonism was never real. There might not always be perfect agreement between science on the interpretations of God's word which the church may have given. We must discriminate between revelation and man's interpretations of it—between religion and superstition. Science is the handmaid of true religion. It never hinders, but always aids in making known the wisdom, goodness and greatness of God.

The illustrations employed by the speaker were wonderfully apt and well put. His style was sparkling, his imagery beautiful, and his oratory fervid. Altogether the address was of a superior character, and was received with great favor. Mr. Hickey is a young man of rare gifts as a speaker.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A PROMINENT NEW YORK PHYSICIAN

has lately complained to Dundas Dick & Co. about their Sandalwood Oil Capsules, stating that some of them had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient HAD NOT BEEN TAKING DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and Dundas Dick & Co. take this as the sole reason why the PURE OIL in the BEST and CHEAPEST form.

Dundas Dick & Co. use more Oil of Sandalwood than all the wholesale and retail druggists and perfumers in the United States combined, and this is the sole reason why the PURE OIL is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty Capsules ONLY being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other remedy can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SUIVE CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

TASTELESS MEDICINES—Castor Oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO'S CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO SMELL.
